LOG Of CHALLENGE of the YUKON In AVPRO'S Collection

CHALLENGE of the YUKON came to radio February 3, 1938 over WXYZ Detroit. The program was a 15 minute serial until June of 1947. It moved to the ABC Network as a 30 minute program airing 3 times per week for Quaker Oats. The program moved again in June, 1950, to the Mutual Network. The program was retitled Sergeant Preston of the Yukon in November, 1951. Sgt Preston and his Dog, Yukon King, left the air in 1955. Jay Michael was Sergeant Preston from the beginning until he was replaced by Paul Sutton in the mid 1940s. Paul Sutton played the Sergeant until 1954 when Brace Beemer, the voice of the Lone Ranger, appeared as Sergeant briefly in the 1954-55 season.
