The LOG of The LUX Radio Theater

LUX RADIO THEATER began broadcasting on the NBC Radio Network October 14, 1934, from New York. In the beginning the program dramatized a mixture of movies and Broadway Plays. On July 29, 1935, the program moved to the CBS Network and remained there until the last New York broadcast was heard May 25, 1936. On June 1, 1936 the series began broadcasting from Hollywood with Cecil B. DeMille as the Producer and Host. This move to Hollywood saw the program dropping Broadway Plays and dramatizing movies with , hopefully, the original movie cast. On September 14, 1954, the series returned to the NBC Network and was last heard June 7, 1955.

N/A indicates the program is not available at this time.
