NERO WOLFE

In AVPRO's Collection

The ADVENTURES of NERO WOLFE, “the detective genius who rates the knife and fork the greatest tools ever invented by man,” came to radio first on July 5, 1943, over the Blue Network. This Rex Stout character who was really a stout gourmet did not last long. Nero Wolfe returned to radio in 1945 and lasted until December, 1946. This series had Francis X. Bushman as the heavy detective with Elliot Lewis as Archie Goodwin, Wolfe’s Secretary and Go-For. The series returned a third time in 1950 with Wolfe being portrayed by Sidney Greenstreet. The program left the air for good on April 27, 1951
