The WHISTLER premiered on the West Coast over the CBS Radio Network May 16, 1942. It was soon billed as the “most popular radio mystery program on the West Coast.” The 13 note whistle of The Whistler was performed by Dorothy Roberts for most of series’ run. For years the voice of the Whistler was kept a secret, but in 1951 Bill Forman was introduced as the voice of the shadowy character. Marvin Miller was the host and many associated the Whistler’s Voice to him and many still do. The long time sponsor on the West Coast was The Signal Oil Company. When the Whistler went national in 1947, the East Coast Sponsor for a time was Household Finance. “I am The Whistler and I walk by Night” was last heard as a regularly scheduled program on September 8, 1955.
