THE WEIRD CIRCLE

The WEIRD CIRCLE first came to radio via the MUTUAL Network on August 29, 1943. The program was produced and syndicated by ZIV Productions. It would air on different networks in various areas of the country usually on Sundays. There were various sponsors during the program's history. Dates and times would, of course, be different according station location and affiliation. The last syndicated and final show aired in October 6, 1947. There are a total of 78 programs. All are listed here and all are available. Dates used are from the first time the program was syndicated.
